ANTHONY LO SURDO SC APPOINTED AN ACICA FELLOW

In recognition of his experience in international arbitration, on 1 June 2016, Anthony Lo Surdo SC was appointed as a Fellow of The Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration (ACICA) and to its panel of arbitrators. This follows his appointment in January 2016 to the Court of Arbitration for Sport and an earlier appointment to the ACICA panel of mediators.

ACICA is Australia's leading international dispute resolution body and is active in international and domestic arbitration and mediation. Established in 1985, its objective is to promote and facilitate the efficient resolution of commercial disputes in Australia and internationally by arbitration, with the aim of delivering expediency and neutrality of process, enforceability of outcomes and commercial privacy to parties in dispute.
