Biographical Summary

Anthony has a broad practice both at trial and appellate level spanning diverse areas including commercial, equity, corporations, insurance law, professional indemnity, property and sports law. He has a particular interest in banking and insolvency in respect of which he has written extensively and has been named in “Doyle’s Guide to the Australian Legal Profession” in 2011 and again in 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018 as one of Australia’s leading insolvency and restructuring barristers.

Anthony is accredited as an advanced mediator, arbitrator and expert determiner. He is regularly retained as a mediator in complex multi-party disputes. He has also been ranked by “Doyle’s Guide to the Australian Legal Profession” as a leading mediator in New South Wales, 2018. He is also often appointed as an arbitrator in commercial matters especially involving sport both domestically and internationally.

Advisory and Advocacy

Anthony has advised and/or has appeared for:

- The ACT Government.
- Applicants and Group Members in class actions including arising out of the collapse of Storm Financial Pty Ltd (in liq) and Westpoint Corporation (in liq).
- ASIC in relation to breaches of continuous disclosure provisions, breaches of market manipulation requirements, misleading and deceptive conduct and unconscionable conduct, and disciplinary proceeding involving insolvency practitioners.
- Banks and other financial institutions in relation to the enforcement of security interests and banker/customer disputes.

In October 2018, Anthony was appointed to the mediation panel of the Asian International Arbitration Centre.

As part of his ongoing commitment to excellence in mediation, in 2017 Anthony attained certification as a mediator by the International Mediation Institute (IMI) and the Singapore International Mediation Institute (SIMI) and in doing so joins a select number of mediators in Australia to achieve that qualification.

In recognition of his specialist knowledge of mediation and sports law, in January 2016, Anthony was appointed by the International Council of Arbitration for Sport (ICAS) as a mediator of the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS).

Anthony has been a member of the Supreme Court and District Court's Mediation Panels for several years. He is also a member of the mediation panel of the Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration (ACICA).

Anthony has acted as mediator in a vast array of matters since he was first accredited in 1993. He has mediated well in excess of 200 complex disputes since 2009. He uses his experience as both senior counsel and as a mediator to quickly identify the issues and to gain an understanding of the position of each party in the mediation so as to assist in facilitating a fair and efficient resolution to a dispute.

Anthony's work as a mediator includes:

- Banking disputes
- Contractual disputes
- Corporations law disputes including claims arising from insolvency
- Partnership disputes
- Disputes between joint venturers
- Disputes between lenders and valuers involving allegations of negligent property valuation
- Claims involving alleged negligence by lawyers
- Claims involving the alleged negligence of town planners
- Claims involving the alleged negligence of accountants
- Claims against investment advisors including financial planners
- Employment disputes
- Claims involving restraints of trade
